

Terms & Conditions for Pamper Me Girls Parties

-  All consultation forms and any other relevant paperwork MUST be returned at least seven days prior to the party date in order that we may arrange any adaptations to the treatments as required.
-  Inclusions may vary due to availability. We do our best to provide the party bags as described, but from time to time certain items may be unavailable and therefore replaced with another item of similar value.
-  Non disposable items remain the property of Pamper Me Girls.
-  Requested deposits required at the time of booking and the remainder to be paid to the Pamper Crew on the night in cash (we do not accept cheques).
-  28 days notice required to cancel in order to receive a full refund.
-  The Pamper Me Girls parties are priced with the number of guests considered at the time of booking, any less guests and the party price must remain the same.
-  The Pamper Crew may refuse treatments to child or teenager under the influence of drugs or alcohol, with no refund.
-  Pamper Me Girls insurers are unable to offer cover for the use of the chocolate fountain, as this falls outside of the policy remit. You are advised that the chocolate fountain is provided at your own risk and to check if this is covered under your home insurance before accepting receipt of the chocolate fountain. Please advise Pamper Me Girls beforehand if you wish to omit the chocolate fountain from the pamper party.
-  Our Pamper Crew require a smoke free environment to provide the maximum benefits.
-  It is advised that in order to gain maximum time, relaxation and effective results, smaller children and pets do not enter the party area.
-  Due care and consideration must be taken with the Pamper Me Girls equipment, all damages must be accounted for.
-  All guests aged 16 and under must be supervised by a parent or guardian over the age of 18. Our Pamper Crew cannot be held responsible for the supervision of children and teenagers.
-  We may also need help with supervision of the additional activities i.e. jewelry making, card making, chocolate fountain, cocktails, dressing up or limo, to allow us to focus on the guest receiving the pampering treatments.
-  The Pamper Crew are not responsible for any allergic reactions if consent has been given for the respective treatment or allergies were not declared.
-  By booking a party you agree to the above terms and conditions.
